Exhibition and Sponsorship Prospectus 2007

Introduction

Building on the success for the first 'Investing in Medical Nanotechnologies' conference, this second annual nanomedicine conference and exhibition will showcase the state-of-the-art scientific developments on the healthcare applications of nanotechnology as well as opportunities for investment. The event organised by The Institute of Nanotechnology (IoN), one of the largest nanotechnology information service provider is the only event in Europe which brings together Investors, Industry and Academia in nanomedicine.

- Meet SMEs with novel medical nanotechnologies
- Learn about technology trends, current markets and future opportunities
- Hear from top VCs on the best investing strategies
- Learn from clinicians how nanotechnology enables new diagnostics and therapeutic techniques

Sessions include:

- 'The Promise of Nanomedicine'
- 'Tissue Engineering and Regenerative Medicine'
- 'Drug Delivery and Pharmaceutical Development'
- 'Clinical Applications of Nanotechnology'
- 'Novel Devices, Nanosensors and Diagnostics'
- 'Investing in Nanomedicine: Strategy and Vision for the Future'

Other discussion points:

- Raising Finance for nanotechnology start-ups
- Business models: Finance and valuation
- The current environment for investment in medical businesses
- Social and ethical aspects of medical nanotechnologies
